INDONESIAN TEA FOR THE WORLD

FROM INDONESIA TO THE WORLD

"BY exporting our Indonesian products across the world, we can introduce another part of the wonderful face of Indonesia"

Increasing international trade provides greater opportunities for Indonesian companies to share their unique products with rest of the world. Base on a combination of the right product, the right team and the right financial model, Indonesian companies can succeed in global trade to the benefit of themselves and to the nation

PT GUNUNG SLAMAT (GS) is part of Rekso Group who was more than 30 years of experience in the industry.

GS first took on the challenge of becoming a recognized international trader of high quality agriculture products and it was established in August 2000. Initially focused on exporting and trading tea, the company vision has grown to include exporting a wider range of quality agricultural products.

GS realizes that as a global player, the company's export products reflect indonesia's Agro-Industry and create responsibility that the company does not take lightly. A key in the company's success is to provide a high quality-indonesian products for the world's nations to enjoy. GS is not simply a trading company, they intimately involved in the development and production of each of products that it exports.

At GS, regular face-to-face meetings with the importing clients are balanced with regular face-to-face meetings with the managers in the fields.

The end result is product cultivated and produced to meet the consumer's demands.

By focusing on delivery of Indonesia's finest agro-products, GS intends not only to build its own reputation but also to strengthen and build indonesia's reputation as a premier source of high quality agricultural products in the international community.
